(USEF), will be held in each of the nine USDF regions. In addition, Alaska and Hawaii may each hold state championships if an official request from a Group Member Organization (GMO) is received by April 1 of the prior year. The Regional Championship Program Rules can be found on the USDF website at www.usdf.org. Please refer to the 2023 USDF Member Guide for the comprehensive list of rules and requirements for this program.

Non-Member (NM) Identification Number: For each USDF NM owner/lessee and USDF NM rider there will be a USDF NM fee of $35 per competition that must be collected by the show secretary and submitted to USDF, along with the USDF Report of Fees document and the $5 affidavit fee and Competition Affidavit Form if the person cannot provide a copy of their USDF NM card. Owners/lessees or riders exempt from the NM number requirements are also exempt from paying the USDF NM fee. If there are multiple owners of a horse and all are NMs, only one of the owners must pay the NM fee. If the horse has at least one owner who is a current USDF PM, GM, or BM there is no NM fee assessed. Competition management will be invoiced for all applicable USDF NM fees not received with the USDF post-competition paperwork, along with a report listing all USDF NMs. Competition management is then required to submit the NM fees within 30 days to the USDF. An individual with a USDF NM identification number is not eligible for any USDF membership benefits. Once a USDF NM number has been assigned, a USDF NM card can be obtained from the USDF website.

Horse Identification (HID) Number: A one-time tracking number for horses ($35). Scores earned by a horse with an HID number will be recorded but will NOT be counted towards Adequan[®]/USDF Year-End Awards. A horse with an HID number is not eligible to compete in Great American Insurance Group/USDF Regional qualifying or championship classes. An HID number can be upgraded to a Lifetime Horse Registration (LHR) for a fee of $80. If a horse has a USDF LHR it does not need an HID number. An HID number is a one-time fee that does not need to be renewed.

Lifetime Horse Registration (LHR): A horse with an LHR ($115) is eligible for Adequan[®]/USDF Year-End Awards, and eligible to compete in Great American Insurance Group/USDF Regional qualifying and championship classes, assuming requirements for the owner and rider are met. If a horse has an LHR it does not need an HID number. An LHR does not need to be renewed.

USDF New for 2023

Please be aware of the changes to USEF rules and USDF policies below. Please ensure that competition prize lists are updated accordingly.

Attention Show Secretaries- New USEF/USDF Test Cycle Starts December 1, 2022

Starting December 1, all competitions will be using the 2023 USEF/USDF score sheets. Please make sure to toss any 2019 versions you have on file. Score sheets are available on the USDF website here. Changes to FEI score sheets will be effective January 1 unless otherwise noted on the FEI website. Please be sure your software programs are up to date to ensure scores are calculated and submitted correctly in your results.

2023 USDF Breeders Championship Series Application and Rules

USDF Breeders Championship Series applications and rules are available on the USDF website. Series Final Host Site applications are due to USDF with payment by February 1, 2023. Late applications will be subject to a $50 late fee. Please note, for 2023, each series is required to hold a total of two qualifying competitions in order for a series final to be held. This includes one qualifier required to be held in conjunction with each series final.

Great American/USDF Freestyle Championships: Beginning in 2023, Regional Championship Competitions will offer a combined Open/Jr/YR freestyle championship class and an AA freestyle championship class at all championship levels.

Update to the USEF Universal Results Template

The universal results template has been updated to include a new column for add back money. You will now need to report the total amount of prize money awarded to each exhibitor, which includes add back money; the total amount of prize money being offered for each class; and the total amount of add back money, which was awarded to each exhibitor, if applicable. If you do not offer any add back money you can leave this column blank or report "0". Competition software providers have been notified of this change to the 2023 universal template. For Example - if a class is offering $1000.00 in total prize money, with $50.00 in add back money and the exhibitor won $100.00 (including the $10.00 add back money), you would report it as:

$1,000.00 Total amount of prize money offered for class

$100.00 Total amount of prize money won for exhibitor

$10.00 Total amount of add back money awarded for exhibitor

The 2023 USEF Universal Results Template is available at this link.

USDF Statement on Animal Welfare

The United States Dressage Federation, Inc. (USDF), a federation of over 100 independent organizations throughout the United States with a membership of nearly 30,000 members, supports the concept of ethical treatment of animals.

Dressage is a classical method of training horses, based upon the horse's natural responses, as carried out in a gradual, planned program during which the horse's athletic abilities are improved in a systematic manner. As a result, the horse becomes capable, comfortable, and responsive in partnership with the rider without the use of force. Dressage competition at various levels of achievement is the ultimate test of the training program to determine whether the desired harmony between horse and rider has been achieved.

The rules pertaining to dressage competition prohibit the use of artificial appliances, training aids, and drugs, which would force the horse to submit. Instead, the emphasis is upon training and a cooperative partnership with the rider. Major competitions are carefully monitored to assure that there is no unnecessary force or harshness displayed.

Unlike other horse sports in which horses enter training at a relatively immature state, dressage training is usually not seriously begun until the horse is three or four. The top levels of achievement require five or more years of progressive training and it is not unusual to see horses in international competition in their late teens. This, in itself, places a premium on good care and soundness throughout the horse's life.

While supporting the concept of animal welfare in its broadest form, the United States Dressage Federation, Inc., also recognizes that it is unrealistic to ascribe human emotions and responses to the horse which in its wild state is a creature of flight, living a hard and precarious existence. Under domestication, the horse is assured of ample food, water, and shelter, as well as protection against infectious diseases and damaging parasites, thus leading a longer and healthier life with a high rate of survival.

As an educational organization, USDF has numerous programs, which teach people how to pursue the accepted, humane training methods. A program of certifying instructors also emphasizes protecting the horse's welfare in pursuit of dressage training.

SUMMARY OF MEASUREMENT RULES AND PROCEDURES

For complete rules see Chapter 5, Chapter HU/ Subchapter HU-10 and JP118.4 of the United States Equestrian Federation, Inc. Rule Book.

- In order to compete in a performance class at a Federation licensed competition in any division or section that requires a measurement card:
 - The owner or person presenting the horse/pony on behalf of the owner is in possession of a measurement card issued by the Federation. The owner or person presenting for Saddlebreds, Hackneys and Roadsters only, may present an Equine Canada measurement card bearing the date of 1982 or later.
 - The owner or person presenting the horse/pony on behalf of the owner possesses a copy of a valid measurement form.
 - Management confirms measurement electronically with the Federation Office.
 - Any Hackney Roadster or Roadster Pony possessing a permanent measurement card dated 2003 and prior must be re-measured for a new permanent measurement card. If the pony has a permanent measurement card dated 2004 or later, the pony does not have to be re-measured each year for a new measurement card.
- Measurements must take place at a Federation licensed competition in which the animal is entered to compete. Once the animal has been measured the measurement is effective whether or not the animal does in fact compete; whether or not the animal competes, it is also subject to drug testing.
- Animals can be measured with or without shoes. It is suggested that the animal be familiarized with the measurement process prior to its formal measurement by getting it accustomed to the application of the measurement stick. Once a Hunter Pony, Children's Hunter, Junior Hunter, Small Hunter, Pony Jumper or Welsh is presented for measurement, the owner/agent must accept the resulting measurement. These divisions do not allow Federation officials to perform "courtesy", "trial", or repeat measurements and both a steward and veterinarian must be present and sign the form in order to receive a standard or temporary measurement card.
- The animal must stand squarely on all four feet in such a position that the front legs are vertical to the ground and the back of the hocks are in a vertical line with the point of the animal's quarters. Exception: Hackney Division, see HK103.4. A handler may cover the animal's eyes, but may not have any other physical contact with the animal. Blinkers are allowed.
- Hunter Pony, Children's Hunter, Junior Hunter, Small Hunter, Pony Jumper or Welsh: the poll must be in the same horizontal plane as the withers and no lower, and the head should be in a normal position. All others: The head must be held low enough to reveal the highest point of the withers and no lower.
- Measurement cards will be processed within 45 days of receipt by the Federation of a properly completed measurement form. The card will be mailed to the address of the owner. If the card is not received within 45 days of the date of the measurement, the owner or trainer of the animal should contact the Federation.
- In the case of a lost or mutilated measurement card, the owner or trainer must submit a written request and the appropriate fee to the USEF office for a duplicate measurement card. If you attend a competition and do not have a measurement card or a valid measurement form, the animal will be measured for the purpose of that competition only. Animals with a valid card may be re-measured once per competition year without penalty; however, there is a fine for each subsequent re-measurement.
- A measurement can be protested by an owner or trainer competing against your animal.
- An owner or trainer who questions the accuracy of an initial measurement, or an owner or trainer of an animal declared ineligible for a division on account of height may appeal the measurement. A written request must be submitted to the Federation within 14 days of the initial measurement along with the appropriate fees. Each animal submitted for an appeal measurement must be tested for drugs and medications in accordance with Chapter 4.
- An owner may request a re-measurement of a horse or pony to a larger or lower height section by either letter or e-mail to the Federation office. If the animal measures into a smaller height section it will be ineligible to show in either section for 90 days. Please see subchapter HU-10/Re-measurement.

MARKINGS

The characteristics of all white marks must be described, starting with the head and continuing with the limbs and the rest of the body. A white mark can be regular or irregular and can be bordered by a band of black skin that shows under the white hair at the edge of the mark (the area appears bluish). It can be mixed with the hair of the coat, completely or in part, or at the edge.

HEAD

- Star – on the forehead, above the imaginary line drawn between the top of both eyes. Designate size, shape, position, and any colored markings on the white.
- Stripe – narrow white marking down the face, not wider than the flat anterior surface of the nasal bones; often the star and stripe are continuous and should be described as star and stripe combined.
- Blaze – a white marking covering almost the whole of the forehead between the eyes and extending beyond the width of the nasal bones, usually to the muzzle.
- White face – white covers the forehead and front of face, extending laterally towards the mouth.
- Snip – an isolated white marking, independent of those already named, and situated between or in the region of the nostrils.
- Flesh mark – lack of pigmentation; indicate any black spots within the flesh mark.
- White muzzle – where the white embraces both lips and extends to the region of the nostrils.

LIMBS

Start with left fore followed by the right fore and continue with the left hind and then the right hind. Any variation in the hoof pigment should be noted, especially if the horse has no other special characteristics.

- White coronet
- White pastern
- White fetlock
- White half cannon
- White to knee, to hock, to hind quarter, etc.
- White patch on coronet; specify location
- White ring around limb; does not extend to the coronet

BODY

List all white markings and any other markings such as permanent scars, etc. Examples of peculiarities of the coat:

- Grey-ticked – white hairs sparsely distributed through the coat or any part of the body.
- Flecked – small collections of white hairs distributed irregularly in any part of the body.
- Black or dark marks – small areas of black or dark hairs among the basic (lighter) body color.
- Spots – small, more or less circular, collections of hairs differing from the general body color, distributed in various parts of the body.
- Leopard – many more or less circular collections of hairs differing from the general body color.
- Patch – any larger well defined irregular area (not covered by previous definitions) of hairs differing from the general body color.
- Zebra marks – dark or black striping on the limbs, neck or quarters.
- Withers stripe – zebra band across the withers.
- Dorsal stripe – band of black hairs extending from the withers backwards to the base of the tail.
