Sarah Kuhn is a familiar face for many at Stable View. Her program is based out of Aiken year-round. She is well known not only for her riding, but also for her coaching. She was instrumental in her role of assisting USC-Aiken win at the 2023 Intercollegiate Eventing Championship.

She had a very successful Oktoberfest coming in third in the CCI4*-S and third in the CCI3*-S Young Horse Championships. She also won the Open Training B Division. She and her four-star mount, Mr. Cash van de Start, used this as a final run before running the Maryland Five-Star at the end of October.

During an interview at Oktoberfest, Sarah said, "Stable View always does a great job. I'm so lucky I'm based here in Aiken. We compete here a lot and I can't thank Barry and Cyndy enough for everything they do." Click on the first link below to watch the entire video. Click on the second link to watch her do the "Who Is" Challenge with Jane Jennings (the September Rider Spotlight).
