

DRESSAGE COLLECTION IS OFF TO AN ENGAGING START:

Two of the eleven show days of the series are off to a good start. Wednesday, January 10th, and January 31st, event and dressage riders alike came out for a chance to practice their test in front of a judge as well as participate in some friendly competition.

Congratulations to Savannah Fulton and Cash Point for having the best test of the day on January 10th. They scored a 73.5% in Third Level Test Three.

The second show of the series was on January 31st. Congratulations to Taylor Berlin and PCE Cosmo for having the best score of the day with a 76.563% in Introductory Test A.

There are Year-End Attendance Awards for the Schooling Dressage Collection Show Series. The horse and rider combination with the most attendance will receive a year-end prize. Ties will be broken by the lowest dressage score.

Hope to see you at a Schooling Dressage Collection. The next two shows are February 28th and March 27th.
