

STABLE VIEW SPOTLIGHT: MORIAH ORMS

Moriah Orms is a winter boarder at Stable View for the season. Moriah has been riding her whole life. She said it runs in the family as her mom, aunt, and cousin all ride. Moriah shared, "I was a working student for Kelly Temple. I've been on that professional path ever since."

Moriah is from Virginia. She was asked what brought her to Aiken for the winter. She said, "The ground in Virginia is horrible for training right now and there are no competitions." She said coming to Aiken allows her to get an early start on the season.

Moriah currently events three of her four horses. The fourth one didn't quite make it as an event horse and is currently doing dressage. She said this has allowed her to learn more about the dressage discipline. Her goal is to compete at Third Level with this horse and earn her Bronze Medal this year. She hopes to move one of her event horses up to Prelim this year. Her two-star mare had a break and she is working on bringing her back as well.

Moriah was asked her favorite part about being at Stable View for the winter. She said, "Honestly, the people here are fantastic. Ever since day one the people have been so friendly and helpful. The facility is beautiful and the upkeep is wonderful." Stable View has enjoyed having Moriah and her horses as winter boarders and wishes her the best of luck in meeting her competition goals for the season.
