

STABLE VIEW PARTNERSHIPS - AIKEN SADDLERY

If you've been to Aiken, then there is a good chance you have stopped by Aiken Saddlery. Amy Hebert and her husband CP Doremus have been owners of the business since 2014. August will mark their ten-year anniversary. The company was founded in 1979 by Lydia Rose and Charlie Herrick. Amy said that she and CP happened to be in the right place at the right time allowing them to make the purchase. She said that Lydia and Charlie helped make their transition seamless.

Amy said that while she and CP are owners, they wear many hats. Everyone answers the phone, helps load grain, completes orders, and more. As she says, "It's a group effort." Amy was asked for plans for the future. She shared, "We just want to keep up with the growth in this town. As this community grows, we want to grow with it. We are thankful for the support of the community."

Amy shared that she feels like Aiken Saddlery's sponsorship started at the ground floor with Stable View. She said, "It's impressive where we've all gone in a short amount of time." Stable View has continued to expand their offerings and the facility and she said Aiken Saddlery has done the same.

Amy said, "Come by and see us. We love visitors."

Aiken Saddlery Website