

STABLE VIEW SPOTLIGHT: BOYD MARTIN

Boyd Martin bases his operation out of Stable View from the middle of January until the end of February every winter season.

This season Boyd took some time out of his busy schedule to answer some questions.

What's your dream car?

To be quite honest, I couldn't care less about a car. I don't even own my own car funny enough. I drive around in the farm truck. I don't care much for cars - just nice horses.

What time do you wake up in the morning?

I wake up every day at 5 am religiously which sounds impressive, but then I get emails and text messages from Barry Olliff, the CEO of Stable View, at 4 am. So, I'm a big baby compared to Barry.

What's your favorite food?

Sushi from Takosushi down in the Alley in Aiken.

What's your favorite TV Show?

My favorite TV show is Cops. No question.

What's your most embarrassing moment?

There are thousands and thousands and thousands of embarrassing moments. Usually, the ones that I remember the most are when we buy a fancy new horse from overseas and I beg all these important people to get behind it and own it. Then, we bring the horse to America and I invite them all over to watch it jump for the first time and then, I fall off it.

If you could live anywhere, where would you live?

I've been lucky enough to live all over the world in my life and I would say that I love Unionville, Pennsylvania, and Aiken, South Carolina in the Winter.

Do you have any guilty pleasures?

Candy. I'm forever trying to lose weight and then I've got a terrible bad habit of eating candy on the way to bed.

To hear the rest of Boyd's answers click on the linked reels below.

Boyd Interview Part One

Boyd Interview Part Two