Stable View welcomed fifteen alumni teams to the Inaugural Stable View Alumni Cup. It was a tight competition throughout the weekend, but ultimately Alumni Team White was the Championship Team. Alumni from both the University of Tennessee-Knoxville and Sewanee University made up this team. This included Francesca Spoltore, Rachel Sledzik, Sydney Ayres, and Kit Ferguson. The entire team finished on their dressage scores to finish on a team score of 94.167.

Clemson Orange Crush brought home the reserve honors. This team was comprised of Morgan Batton and Amy Cobb. They were just shy of being champions finishing on a score of 96.270. Morgan brought the Clemson spirit all weekend as she sported orange breeches on cross country.

After Auburn took home second in the Intercollegiate spirit competition and first in the intercollegiate championship, their alumni team, It's Great to be Auburn Alumni, took home third Place. Renee Wheeler, Claire Robinson, Lindsey Lanier, and Hanna Peck made up this four-member team.

Fourth place went to Alumni Team Orange. This team was also comprised of the University of Tennessee-Knoxville and Sewanee University Alumni. Lizzie Chamberlin, Sydney Ayres, Erika Adams, and Katie Sullivan all gave it their all this weekend to go home with a team score of 105.720.

The Bulldogs brought home fifth place. Return of the Gurleys was made up of UGA Alumni Alexa Wegner, Jorja Miller, Alexis Clark, and Hannah Ledford. They finished on 106.229.

Rounding out the top six was the School of Hard Knocks Scramble Alumni Team. Aiken locals Jane Jennings, Stephanie Caston, Mary Guynn, and Summer Cogan finished with a team score of 106.390.
