

COMING TO AIKEN THIS WINTER?

Do you want to escape the cold this winter? Do you want to have countless schooling and showing opportunities steps from your accommodations and stables? Consider coming to Stable View in Aiken this winter. Between the Eventing Academies, the Hunter/Jumper Institute, the Hunter/Jumper In & Out Series, and the Dressage Collection schooling opportunities and the Aiken Opener Horse Trials, "I Love Dressage," and "Southern Comfort" Dressage recognized shows, there are plenty of shows on-site, not to mention the other show opportunities in Aiken. There are seven Attwood arenas with GGT Footing including a Covered Arena. In addition, to discounted access to the Boyd Martin ETB Schooling Field. Full-time boarders and renters are also invited to join the Stable View crew at Monday Night Dinners.

Those interested in calling "The Gathering Place" home for the winter, contact Stable View at info@stableviewfarm.com or (484)356-3173. You will get the opportunity to be a part of a close-knit community. Don't miss out on your chance to have Stable View be your Winter base.

receive a text when your order is ready for pick up at the Pavilion. Alternatively, you can visit Stableview.shop and order online. This take-away service is designed to offer a seamless experience.

Additionally, the Stable View Bistro chefs will be catering the upcoming Oktoberfest VIP Experience luncheon. The menu showcases some delectable German-inspired items to complement the atmosphere of Oktoberfest.