

STABLE VIEW SPOTLIGHT: JENNIFER NODINE

Jennifer Nodine is the show manager and secretary for Stable View's new Hunter/Jumper In & Out Series. She shared, "The new local series allows people to show at a high quality facility at a reasonable price. It is good for all levels of competitors. The rings, facilities and the accommodations are all gorgeous."

Jennifer has been involved in the industry for most of her life. She said, "I started riding Hunter Jumpers at a very young age through high school. My family has been involved in the horse world for many years."

Outside of horses Jennifer shared, "My husband and I love all things water. We like to ride on the pontoon or on our jet skis. We have two dogs who like love to go camping at the lake with us."

Jennifer also shared, "I love all things Stable View and look forward to the continued success of this series."
