

TIP CHAMPIONSHIPS RECAP:

While the TIP Championships took place three weeks later than planned, everyone was still blessed with warm weather. Not everyone could make the new date but those who did got to experience a one-of-a-kind event. There was the addition of several western classes including Western Pleasure Classes, Trail and Obstacle Classes, Ranch Riding, and Western Dressage classes. There was also several fun classes including Horse and Human Costume Contest, Dog Costume Contest, Lead Line Classes for children and adults, and a Hobby Horse Competition.

Being the weekend before Halloween the competition was fierce. Kelley Halliwell and Dutton who is a Pembroke Welsh Corgi took first place in the Dog Costume Class. Meanwhile, Allison Andrews and Diamond Bachelor won the horse costume contest. Lainey James Despres and Sure Prize won the Horse and Human Contest Portion A while Katie Tarasevich and Drafted won the Horse and Human Contest Portion B. The Hobby Horse Contest was one by Emily Pfitzner who is highlighted in this month's rider spotlight. Emily won despite having sprained her ankle the week before.
