

INTERCOLLEGIATE CORNER - CHAMPIONSHIP OPENING DAY COMING SOON:

Photo by Liz Crawley Photography

Opening day for the 2025 Local Charities Horse Trial is just days away. This Horse Trial is also host to the USEA Intercollegiate and Interscholastic Eventing Championships as well as the Stable View Alumni Cup.

It will be a busy weekend. It starts off on Thursday evening at the Graze and Gaze sponsored by Boehringer Ingelheim from 5-7pm. Friday will kick off competition for upper levels (Modified through Advanced). They will do dressage and show jumping. The Training divisions might also possibly do their dressage tests depending on entry counts. Friday evening will officially kick off the party with the Parade of Teams being at 5pm in the Phillips Arena. Following the Parade of Teams, there will be Graze and Gaze from 6-8pm. There will also be some games just for fun including the mechanical bull.

Saturday will be host to the college fair in the upstairs of the Pavilion. Saturday will see all divisions run at least one phase. Saturday evening will once again have Graze and Gaze as well as the Hobby Horse Combined Trials. Schools/clubs can elect one team member for Hobby Horse Show Jumping and one team member for Hobby Horse Cross Country. Mogie Bearden-Muller will be designing the course. Sunday will conclude the competition and the official awards ceremony will be that afternoon.